We come from different backgrounds, places, and generations but many of our struggles, fears, joys, and dreams are the same.

This is a time to connect with other women, to share your experiences, learn from others, and encourage one another.

Come join us Saturday, February 23rd from 3:30 pm - 5:00 pm in a safe, loving and confidential space.

Special guest, Shauna Summers, LCPC will be joining the group to discuss domestic violence.
